Receipt of such notice

shall not be deemed to create any obligation on the part of Landlord to defend or otherwise respond to any such notification.

A. Notwithstanding the obligation of Tenant to indemnify Landlord pursuant to this Lease Agreement, Tenant shall, upon demand of Landlord, and at its sole cost and expense, promptly take all actions to remediate any environmental damages caused by Tenant. Landlord Tenant

B. Tenant shall indemnify and hold the Landlord and his agents or employees harmless from any and all claims, including all costs, expenses and attorney's fees, by or on behalf of any person, entity or governmental agency arising from any breech or default on the part of the Tenant in the performance of the covenant contained in this paragraph C. In case any action or proceeding is brought against the Landlord or his agents or employees by reason of any such claim, Tenant, upon written notice from Landlord, covenants to resist or defend, at Tenant's expense, such action or proceeding by counsel reasonably satisfactory to Landlord.

Landlord shall also have the right in his sole and absolute discretion, but not the duty, to enter and conduct an inspection of the Leased Premises at any reasonable time to determine whether Tenant is complying with the terms of this Lease Agreement. Landlord shall have the right, but not the duty, to retain at the sole expense of Landlord any independent professional consultant to enter the Leased Premises to conduct such an inspection and to review any report prepared by or for Tenant concerning such compliance. Tenant hereby grants to Landlord, his agents, employees, consultants and contractors the right to enter the Leased Premises and to perform such tests as are reasonably necessary in the opinion of Landlord to conduct such reviews and investigations. Landlord shall use his best efforts to minimize interference with the business of Tenant, but shall not be liable for any interference caused thereby.

2. Repairs. The Landlord shall keep, at his sole expense, the structural supports and exterior walls and roof of the building in good order and repair.

3. Default by Tenant. If the Leased Premises shall be deserted or vacated or if proceedings are commenced against the Tenant in any Court under the Bankruptcy Act or for the appointment of a trustee or receiver of the Tenant's property, whether before or after the commencement of the lease term, or if there shall be a default in the payment of rent, or any part thereof, for three (3) days after written notice of such default by the Landlord, or if there shall be default in the performance of any other covenant, agreement, condition, rule or regulation herein contained or hereafter established on the part of the Tenant for ten (10) days after written notice of such default by the Landlord, the Landlord may terminate the Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Premises and the Tenant shall surrender the Leased Premises to the Landlord. The Landlord may re-rent the Leased Premises at such rental and upon such other terms and conditions as Landlord, in his sole discretion, may deem advisable, and all expenses incurred by the Landlord in re-renting shall be borne by the Tenant. The Tenant shall nevertheless remain liable for annual rent and additional rent for the full term of this Lease. Any rent received by the Landlord from the re-renting will be applied to the amounts due to the Landlord for the Tenant under this Lease. In the event that any default, other than the payment of rent, for which notice has been given as herein provided for cannot, because of its nature, be cured completely, or is not cured completely within the ten (10) day grace period herein provided for, such default shall be deemed to have been remedied for the purpose of this paragraph, if correction thereof shall have been commenced within the ten (10) day grace period and shall, in the reasonable opinion of the Landlord, be thereafter diligently prosecuted to completion by the Tenant.

Landlord, at his option, may, without notice, sell any such personal property at any public or private sale for such prices as Landlord may obtain, and Landlord shall apply the proceeds of such sale first to the costs incurred in connection with such property, and then to any amounts due under this Lease from Tenant to Landlord, and the surplus, if any, to Tenant.

3. Personal Property Taxes. The Tenant shall pay or cause to be paid before delinquency, any and all taxes levied or assessed and which become payable during the term hereof upon all Tenant's leasehold improvements, equipment, furniture, fixtures, and any other personal property located in the Leased Premises. 3. Compensation. All compensation awarded or paid upon such a total or partial taking of the Leased Premises by condemnation shall belong to and be the property of the Landlord without and participation by the Tenant; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude the Tenant from prosecuting any claim directly against the condemning authority in such condemnation proceeding for loss of business, or depreciation to, damage to, or cost of removal of, or for the value of stock, trade fixtures, equipment, furniture, and other personal property belonging to the Tenant.
